

Essential Surgical Skills Course for Postgraduates

2nd–3rd October 2018

This is an essential surgical skills course for foundation year doctors/core surgical trainees and the content of the programme matches the requirement for every surgical specialty and the criteria of the core skills in MRCS exam.

There is ample time for hands-on practice whilst in the Surgical Skills Centre. The course has been developed & taught by Consultant Surgeons and Senior Specialist Registrars.

Programme Includes:

- Principles of hand washing, scrubbing, gowning
- Creation of sterile field
- Administration of local anaesthesia
- Safe handling of surgical instruments
- Range and choice of material for suture and ligation
- Range of knot tying skills
- Range of suturing techniques
- Wound management skills
- Safe use of electrosurgery
- Non-technical skills for surgeons
- Abdominal incision and closure
- Haemostasis
- Anastomosis
- Chest drain insertion
- Cytology and biopsy techniques
- Ergonomic principles in laparoscopic surgery and practice

Course Fee: £475

For more information and to register– www.cuschieri.dundee.ac.uk

Dundee Institute for Healthcare Simulation

Cuschieri Skills Centre, University of Dundee

Level 5, Ninewells Hospital, DUNDEE, DD1 9SY

Phone: +44(0)1382 383400 Email: cscbookings@dundee.ac.uk

